Incoming Executive Board Members

The ORALL Nominations Committee is very pleased to introduce the new members of the ORALL Executive Board who will assume their positions at the close of the annual meeting in Cincinnati, Ohio, October 19-21, 2011. The Committee wishes to thank these members for their enthusiasm and willingness to serve.

Vice-President/President-Elect

Emily Janoski-Haehlen

Assoc. Dir. for Law Library Services, Northern Kentucky University, Salmon P. Chase College of Law

Assistant Professor of Law Library Services

Professor Janoski-Haehlen works at the NKU Chase Law Library since 2003. As Associate Director for Law Library Services, she is in charge of the law library in the director's absence and participates in collection development and overall administration of the library. She is also responsible for posting the Kentucky Supreme Court and Court of Appeals Briefs on the law library's website and providing reference assistance. Professor Janoski-Haehlen is in charge of the digital repository of Chase faculty publications and works with the Chase law faculty in posting their legal papers and other work on the Social Science Research Network. She teaches Basic Legal Skills Research, Advanced Legal Research, and coaches the Adoption Law moot court team.

She received her B.S. from the University of Kentucky, her Juris Doctorate from the Salmon P. Chase College of Law, and her Master's of Science in Library and Information Science from the University of Kentucky.

Emily has been an active member of ORALL since 2003, and she is currently serving on the local arrangements committee for the upcoming meeting in Cincinnati.

TreasurerRick Goheen*Director, University of Toledo College of Law Library

Rick Goheen has been director of the law library and assistant professor of law at the University of Toledo since 2007. Prof. Goheen received all three of his degrees from ORALL institutions, progressively further south along I-75: a bachelor's in political science from Toledo, then a JD from Cincinnati, and finally his MSLS from Kentucky. He is an occasional contributor to Law Librarian Blog. While working at the UC law library, he served as treasurer for his local church and an elementary school PTO. In 2001 he temporarily left ORALL to become the first associate director for public services at the University of St. Thomas in Minnesota, where he served as MALL's co-webmaster and listserv manager and chaired the awards, grants and scholarships committee. He misses the Twin Cities, but is happy to be back in ORALL.

Executive Board MemberSue Altmeyer*Electronic Services Librarian, Cleveland Marshall College of Law

Sue coordinates the development of webpage and blog content. She is involved in selecting, delivering and marketing electronic resources. Sue provides reference service, classroom research instruction and assistance with faculty course pages.

Her prior jobs include research/reference librarian (Cleveland Law Library), appellate law clerk (Ohio Eighth District, Judge Nahra and Judge Dyke) and tax attorney (Ernst & Young). She has given CLE presentations on public records research, Internet legal research, current awareness sources and jury verdict research.

She received her B.A. from Cleveland State University, her Juris Doctorate from Cleveland State University, and her Master's of Science in Library and Information Science from Case Western Reserve University.

Sue has been an active member in ORALL, serving on the education committee, as webmaster, and she was the co-chair for the local arrangements committee for Cleveland meeting in 2009.
