

Shining the Light on Libraries:
A Time of Transition
64th Annual Meeting and Conference
Toledo 2013

October 16-18, 2013

Please join your ORALL colleagues this fall as we shine a light on law libraries in Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Michigan! Your Local Arrangements Committee and Education Committee welcome you to Toledo and Perrysburg for the 64th annual ORALL Meeting and Conference.

This year's meeting will be held at the Hilton Garden Inn at Levis Commons, with an opening reception and dinner at the Toledo Museum of Art's Glass Pavilion. Toledo is the "Glass Capital of the World" and our world-class Art Museum was founded by Edward Drummond Libbey of Libbey Glass. Levis Commons is named for J. Preston Levis, longtime president and chairman of Owens-Illinois, the world's leading glass bottle manufacturer. These two locations are highly appropriate venues to shine the light on our libraries in this time of transition.

Transportation between the Hilton Garden Inn and the Glass Pavilion will be provided on Wednesday night. All events on Thursday and Friday are at the hotel, including Thursday's keynote lunch with Don Faber, author of The Toledo War: The First Michigan-Ohio Rivalry. After a full day of fine food and educational programming, Thursday night's dine-arounds are all within Levis Commons—eight delicious options and you don't even have to move your car! We'll follow that with the traditional game night and euchre tournament back at the hotel.

On Friday morning, we're planning a light breakfast, more educational sessions, and a late morning business meeting with a boxed lunch, so those of you who need to leave early can take the lunch with you... but we hope most of you will stay!

Be sure to make your hotel reservations by September 16 as the conference rate expires on that date. Conference registration is $100 until Monday, September 30, after which the price goes up $50. We look forward to seeing you in the Glass City in October.

Sincerely,

Rick Goheen

Local Arrangements Chair and ORALL Treasurer
