Directly following the presentation by the Statewide Consortium of County Libraries a brief board meeting of the Ohio Law Library Consortium Board was held. Then Judith Maxwell took the members on a tour of the Delaware County Law Library. The building that the Delaware County Law Library is in was the county jail from 1878 through 1988. The jail used to house the inmates and the local Sherriff. We were greeted at the library by Oliver the Cat. Oliver did a great job of performing his duties to delight of everyone.

The special guest in attendance was Ms. Minerva Elizage who serves as both Secretary and Legal Counsel to the Board of Unauthorized Practice of Law.
