

Mini-Conference for New ORALLians

An essential program for first time conference attendees and new(ish) law librarians.

By Marissa Mason, Amelia Landenberger, and Shannon Kemen

Panelists: Rob Myers, Shannon Kemen, Angela Baldree, and Mary Jenkins

Schedule

4:00-4:15

Introduction

4:15-4:35

Panel:

Rob Myers

Shannon Kemen

Angela Baldree

Mary Jenkins

4:35-4:45

Questions for the panel

4:45-5:00

Speed networking

Amelia and Marissa's TOP 10 TIPS for conference success:

1. Find a conference buddy
2. Social Events
3. Eat
4. Sleep
5. Don't eat alone
6. Try things outside of your area of specialty
7. Stay organized
8. Follow up with people
9. Be comfortable...
10. Don't forget, Conferences are FUN!!

How to get involved in ORALL:

Attend the annual meeting

Read the newsletter

Read the emails on the listserv

Write for the newsletter

Become a member of a committee

Organize a meeting or happy hour for local ORALL members

Take a leadership role in ORALL

Conversation Starters:

Food – what do you love, what do you make?

What is your favorite ice cream flavor?

Travel – coolest place you've been

Library schools – where you studied

Law schools – where you've worked or studied

The weather in Fort Wayne – always a safe topic

Fun stories about being a librarian