

Thinking Outside the Library Walls: Reaching Out to Our Patrons

Michael Whiteman

Associate Dean for Law Library & Information Technology
NKU Chase College of Law

Placemaking in the Academic Law Library, 33 L.R.S.Q. 147 (2014)

Lee Peoples, Oklahoma City
University School of Law

Bringing Information to the People

- Electronic Dissemination
  - Online Study Aid subscriptions;
  - Build a “library resource” page into a faculty’s online course page;
  - Subscribe a class to the BNA Newsletters

Bringing Information to the People

- Print Dissemination
  - Build collections in places where the students and faculty are;
    - Small print clinic collections;
    - Small study aid collection in or near a student commons.

Bringing Information to the People

- Human Interaction
  - Have a table day in the student commons;
    - Highlight some key library resources, both print and electronic;
  - Make sure the librarians attend faculty events, these informal interactions can themselves lead to use of library resources.
  - Imbed a librarian in a legal clinic
  - Imbed a librarian on a faculty floor

NKU CHASE
COLLEGE OF LAW

Let's look at County and Firm Libraries